STRATTON PLUGS LEAK IN ILLINOIS TRUCK LICENSE FEES

Recommends Law Enforcing Proper Licenses
In All Classes

LOSS WAS QUARTER MILLION

Springfield, Ill., July 25.—The state road fund will be richer by approx- imately $250,000 a year as a result of a law enacted by the recent session of the legislature at the suggestion of Secretary of State William J. Stratton.

Shortly after he took office the Secretary of State discovered that about seventy per cent of the truck registrations were for those types of trucks paying the minimum license fee. The State of Illinois registers approximately 200,000 trucks every year and it seemed unusual that 140,000 of those should be paying the minimum fee.

Truck Weights Misrepresented
Under the automobile license law on the statute books for a number of years, the automobile department of the Secretary of State's office took the word of the applicant for a truck license as to the weight of the truck he is driving. When the license plates were sent to the applicant for a truck license he also was forward- ed a plate giving the maximum com- bined weight of the truck and its load as indicated on the application. The owner of the truck was expected to place these weight plates on his truck so that any automobile investi- gator or state highway policeman could tell at a glance whether the proper license fee had been paid.

In investigating the seemingly ex- cessive number of registrations pay- ing the minimum license fee, Sec- retary of State Stratton learned from his automobile investigators that many truck owners or drivers neglect to put on the weight plates or, upon being questioned, say they were lost off their vehicles.

Heaviest Trucks Used

Without these weight plates to go by the investigators had no way of telling whether the proper license fee had been paid. After the investi- gation the automobile department of the Secretary's office ascertained that many truck owners paying the min- imum and operating trucks upon which they should be paying the maximum license fee. The depart- ment estimated that the loss to the State as a result of this practice would approximate $250,000 a year.

With this information before him, Secretary of State Stratton caused to be introduced in the lower branch of the General Assembly a bill to pre- vent this practice.

New Law Effective Next Year
The bill, which became a law a few days ago when Governor Louis L. Emerson signed it, eliminates the weight plates entirely and provides that the truck license plates shall contain both numerals, representing the license number, and letters, indi- cating the weight and, accordingly, the amount of the fee paid. This letter "M" will suffix the numerals on the plates for the minimum weight trucks paying $12.50 a year; "A" will designate trucks paying $22.50; "B" those charged $75; "C" those to pay $100 and "X" for trucks paying the maximum of $150 a year.

The act becomes effective Janu- ary 1, 1930.

Thereafter an automobile investi- gator or a state highway policeman can determine by a glance at a truck license plate whether or not proper payment has been made.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gilbert and family from Waukegan visited at Andrew Dalgard's Sunday.

Capital Women Frustrate Builders

A dispute regarding the erection of a gasoline filling station on a prom- inent highway leading into Washington resulted in two prominent women, one a physician and the other the owner of the land, erecting a small tent and living on the disputed territory while attorneys representing the interested parties endeavored to solve the problem which halted work on the station. The photo shows one of the ladies holding the fort.

Assessment Roll Is Published This Week

County Treasurer Advises Property Owners to Check Valuations.

The assessment roll for Antioch township is published in this edition of the Antioch News. It is the advice of County Treasurer Jay B. Morse that now is the time to check up on valuations for the tax due next year. This applies to the general tax as well as personal. Complaints should be filed at once with the board of re- view, Mr. Morse said.

Five Waukegan People Injured

Chain O' Lakes Laundry Shows Progress; Company Ready for Bids on Building

The Chain O' Lakes Laundry and Dry Cleaning plant will soon be in operation in Antioch, according to Clarence D. Foth, who has headed the move to secure the industry for the region and make the project a reality. The real estate, easement rights, appurtenances and building have been acquired by the Company and funds to pay for same are deposited in escrow with a local bank to pay for same, together with all equities, mortgages, liens, etc. Difficulties oc- casioning considerable delay in fed- eral court proceedings have all been cleared.

Sufficient funds are on hand to pay for sewers, water lines, and the mak- ing of minute surveys. This week engineers are making the layouts for machinery and equipment and

'MENTAL' CASES SHOULD HAVE INDIVIDUAL CARE, JUDGE PERSONS STATES

Institutions Too Crowded, Jurist Tells Audience
at Men's Meeting

Best results in the care of "mental" patients are obtained through in- dividual treatment, of each case, ac- cording to Judge Perry L. Persons, who addressed a special meeting con- ducted by men at the Methodist church here last Sunday evening. "All cases of mental derangement can not be classed as insanity, and our state institutions are rarely re- ferred to as insane asylums in our courts," the judge stated, explaining that every effort was made to secure the best treatment possible for each case that came before the Lake county court.

Judge Persons was speaking on the subject, "Social Work in the County Court." During his 12 years on the county bench he never has committed a patient to an institu- tion, state or private, without having first made an inspection of the place and the methods of treatment. This is something of a record, as the judge has had hundreds of mental cases come before him during his term of office.

Illinois institutions are first-class, the judge stated, but they are over- crowded, and patients should be sent there only in cases of necessity. Judge Persons' address was enlight- ening.

The service was conducted enti- rely by men, but women were invited to attend. A service conducted by women is to be held in the near future, Rev. Bohl announced, adding that this group having the smallest attendance would have to pay a penalty of some kind, perhaps a dinner to the win- ners.

Miss Ruth Chinn, this city, recent- ly won eleven dollars in a contest sponsored by a Chicago daily paper.

ILLINOIS FARMER BOYS TO RECEIVE PUREBRED CALVES

Pure Milk Association Offer
To Encourage Future
Farmers

KAAHL, KUTIL SUGGEST MOVE

Here's good news for the future farmers of America! How would you like to have as a present a pure bred calf, one of your own selection—and free? That is the offer of the Pure Milk association made to boys of Illinois who attain the degree of State Farmer in the Future Farmer Organization. Boys of Illinois have two champions who were prime mov- ers in making the project a reality; they are C. L. Kutil, director of voca- tional agriculture in the Antioch high school, and A. M. Krahl, former Methodist pastor here, who is now director of publicity for the Pure Milk association of Chicago.

Learning that the Pure Milk as- sociation was interested in doing something to stimulate interest on the part of students of vocational agriculture, a conference was ar- ranged with Mr. Krahl relative to de- termining just what the Associa- tion could do to help with the work of agriculture in Illinois.

Offer Is Not Limited

As a result of this conference, the Pure Milk Association of Chicago has agreed to present a pure bred calf to each vocational agriculture student in Illinois who attains a de- gree of State Farmer in the Future Farmer organization, as a result of his interest and work with dairy cattle. Indications are that there will be approximately fifty boys in Illinois who will attain the degree of State Farmer in the Future Farmers of America Organization during the coming year. Of this group of fifty, it is probable that from five to ten boys will have attained their State Farmer degree through their dairy activities. The Pure Milk association did not limit the number of calves to be presented to State Farmers.

State Supervisor Approves

Voicing approval of the Pure Milk association's offer, J. E. Hill, state supervisor of agricultural education, writes as follows:

This offer on the part of the Pure Milk association of Chicago, should encourage boys conducting dairy pro- jects to do their best in order to at- tain these prizes. The winners of the prizes will have the opportunity of selecting a calf from a dairy breed which he chooses. I am certain that all of us appreciate the interest of the Pure Milk associa- tion, and that we shall endeavor to see that these boys do work which will be deserving of the interest of the dairy producers in the whole milk district of Chicago.

LEGION FESTIVAL PLANS COMPLETE

Channel Lake To Be Scene of Festivities; Boat Racing Will Be Featured

Final details of the third annual American Legion festival to be held August 10 and 11 at Smith's "Slide Inn," Channel lake, were discussed at a meeting of the local post mem- bers Monday evening.

The big event this year will be speed boat racing on Sunday after- noon, August 11. Many prominent racing pilots are entered in the reg- atta, which promises to be one of the greatest events of the kind ever held here. The many boaters of co- operation is cause for much optimism among the Legionnaires who are looking forward to making the event a great success.

Numerous stands will be erected near the lake shore and there will be amusements for young and old.

Motor Boat Races At Fox Lake Sun.

The Miss Valley Power Boat as- sociation is sponsoring several speed boat races, which will be held at the Minola hotel, Fox Lake, on Sunday, July 23, at 2 p. m., daylight saving time. There will be both inboard and outboard races. The admission is free and all boats are invited to compete.

"WHOOPEE" IS HIGH- PRICED IN ANTIOCH

Charged with being drunk and dis- orderly, Herman Tembrogan was fined one hundred dollars and costs in Police Magistrate Gelstrup's court this morning, after "Tem" and Ben Slatland, his companion in Wednes- day's drinking orgie, had spent the night in jail. Ben was assessed a fine of ten dollars and costs on charge of intoxication. In default of payment of his fine, Tembrogan was taken this morning to Waukegan and lodged in the county jail. Slatland settled.

Tembrogan resisted arrest yester- day when Marshal Simonsen was called to the flat. The pair who had im- bibed too freely, were making things extremely uncomfortable for Mrs. Tembrogan and she appealed for help. "Tem" was soon conquered and placed in jail, where he had plenty of time to think it over until this morn- ing.

THREE THOUSAND ATTEND PREGENZER DAY AT FOX LAKE

Speed Boat Races Attract
Many To Popular Resort Lake

A crowd estimated at 3000 witness- ed the many speed boat events held at Fox Lake last Sunday. Reg Pre- genzer's day, and said to be the most successful of regattas held this sea- son. The fact that the Fox River Valley Power Boat club of Fox Lake is affiliated with the Mississippi Power Boat association and the Na- tional Outboard association, under whose sanction the races are held, has created unusual interest in racing circles in the Chain O' Lakes this season. A line two and one half mile course has been marked out on Fox lake and all records made in sanctioned races are official.

Great Program Next Sunday

A fine program of sanctioned races has been announced for next Sunday by Commodore R. D. Klader and John Peterson, secretary of the race committee. Prizes are donated by the Prima company of Chicago. It costs nothing to see the races. All boats are invited to compete.

Last Sunday's Results

HUNDREDS ATTEND LAYING OF CORNER STONE HERE SUNDAY

Bishop Sheil, Chicago, and Notables Assist
In Exercises

Wide-spread interest was shown in the laying of the corner stone of St. Peter's new Catholic church here last Sunday when notables from all parts of the country were assembled with hundreds of local people to wit- ness the ceremonies.

Formality and dignity were char- acteristic features of every detail of the impressive religious and civic ceremonies. The ritual march, which was led by the American Legion post of Antioch, was a fitting prelude.

Bishop Sheil Officiates

Right Rev. B. J. Sheil, D. D., auxiliary bishop of Chicago, laid the stone. In his address the bishop complimented the people of the town, both Catholic and non-Catholic, upon their splendid co-operation with Rev. Frawley in the undertaking of erecting a new place of worship for those of the Catholic faith. The need of a new church here has been felt for years, as the old building was entirely inadequate, especially during the summer months when thousands of Chicago people spend their vaca- tions here as summer residents. For several years a large tent has been used in summer to provide AMPLE ROOM FOR THE THRONGS who at- tend morning worship.

Prominent Men Speak

A touch reminiscent was injected into the ceremony by President Gee, Bartlett, of the village board of trustees of Antioch, who gave a very interesting talk on the early history of St. Peter's church. He reviewed briefly the characteristic qualities of Father Bruton, the founder, Father Joyce, his successor, and the patient and kindly qualities of Father Lynch.

Chris Paschen, building commis- sioner of the city of Chicago, spoke briefly on the advantages to any community of a new church. He closed by wishing Father Frawley, and his parishioners every measure of success.

The last speaker, Anton J. Cermak, president of the Cook county board, gave a masterful synopsis of civic co- operation of all religious denomina- tions upon an endeavor of this kind. Father Frawley, local pastor, ex- pressed to the three speakers, who are of non-Catholic faith, his thanks and gratitude for their good wishes and financial assistance.

WORKMAN DIES AS RESULT OF SCAFFOLD FALL

George Jamison, Millburn,
Succumbs To Skull
Fracture

The sudden shattering of a scaffold at the Warron Hook farm, Millburn, resulted in the death of George A. Jamison, 54. The accident occurred Saturday afternoon and the victim died Sunday.

His fall from the temporary struc- ture to the ground, a distance of 120 feet, fractured his skull and injured him internally. He was taken to the Lake county hospital, but nothing could be done to save his life.

Is Life Long Resident

Jamison has lived in Millburn since his birth, December 28, 1874. His father was a prominent member of political circles in that village. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Bert Padgett of Hormosa Beach, Cal., and Mrs. Benjamin Slegfried of Ringland, Montana, and one brother, Robert, of Detroit.

The funeral was held at 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon at the Millburn Congregational church. Rev. A. H. Pierstorff officiated. Antioch Lodge A. F. and A. M. No. 127 was in charge of the service.

Mrs. Clayton Wertz spent Wednes- day in Chicago.

An accident occurred near the An- tioch Palace Sunday night which in- volved four cars. The trial has been postponed until August 3.

DO IT NOW

With the idea of enlisting the fullest co-operation towards prevention of fires as the dry season approaches, local fire inspectors, John L. Horan and George Schlosser, have issued a warning to property owners this week through the medium of the News.

A black spot on the record of American progress and prosperity is fire waste.

For two years, since the high mark of over half a billion dollars was reached in 1926, losses have declined, an indication that fire prevention work is bearing fruit. Yet we have the greatest per capita loss of any country in the world.

The tragic part of the waste is that at least eighty per cent of all fires are preventable and inexcusable. We sacrifice thousands of lives and millions of dollars in property, merely because of carelessness or ignorance.

Fire prevention organizations, both public and private, have labored untiringly to instruct the people in the menace of fire and the means of prevention. It is a common occurrence for losses to greatly decrease during the annual "Fire Prevention Week," only to rise again when the period is past.

Fire is the most hopeless and terrible of all wastes. Property and lives destroyed can never be completely replaced. And the indirect loss, in time and business and employment, is incalculable.

Americans who pride themselves on intelligence and education must further reduce the fire waste. They would do well to glance around their homes, offices and factories and eliminate hazards they are sure to find. Do it now, not after the fire.

LAW AND CUSTOM

Laws that are in opposition to the customs of a people can never be successful.

Anti-pistol laws, advocated as a solution of the crime problem, are a good example of a mistaken kind of legislation.

In New York, with its severe Sullivan Act, possession of a pistol or revolver without a license, is a felony. Yet gang-shootings, murders and armed violence are common. The underworld has never been disarmed but a multitude of law-abiding citizens who possess guns for pleasure and protection, have been made theoretical criminals.

The Constitution of the United States guarantees the right to own arms. It has become, through a century and a half, a custom of our people.

A thug or a second-story man who "breaks" basic laws daily in the pursuit of his "profession," is not to be deterred by anti-pistol legislation.

Useless and impractical laws have multiplied and with them has grown a burden of red tape and technicalities that have clouded justice. Sentimentalists would turn the most vicious criminals loose to prey again on society.

Laws, to succeed, must be in complete accord with the customs of a nation. Legislation which fails to recognize this fact will fail in preventing, punishing or repressing crime.

FUTURE HIGHWAY DEVELOPMENT

The greatest field open for future highway development is the paving of secondary and market roads. In progressive rural districts, the poorly-kept dirt road is becoming a thing of the past and is being replaced by efficient, long wearing, low-cost dustless and mudless surfaces.

Extensive tests have shown that the various asphalt and oil treatments are ideal for this work. They have the twin blessing of low cost and practicability. Good roads are a greater boon to the farmer than to any other class of Americans; secondary roads are the crying need of rural sections.

The main highways carry the through traffic but the back country must furnish the tonnage that goes over the trunk roads to market. It is therefore essential that the feeder roads be improved in conjunction with the through roads.

Haven't you found that quick, glad borrowers are slow, sad payers?

It's discouraging to do your best and then find out it isn't good enough.

Some of us might find happiness if we would quit struggling so desperately for it.

Secretly all of us think that our personal wages and profits are a little below normal, while prices are way above normal.

Probably the most important single accomplishment for the politically ambitious, is the fine art of seeming to say something without doing so.

Any candidate can get by in any campaign no matter what the issues, if he skillfully handles the Bible, the Constitution and the Flag.

It is bad publicity to convey the impression of superiority of any sort—but particularly of intellectual superiority. Be a little dumb. Never be subtle or ironical.

Unquenchable optimism seems to be one of God's gifts to fools. Which probably accounts for the fact that some Antioch tax payers are still hoping to see a published report of last year's receipts and expenditures of public funds.

summer with Mrs. Carrie Wilton on Victoria street. They will be glad to have visitors any time. They will not be leaving town until Mr. Jack Frost from the North comes after them. We will all be sorry to see them go.

Yes sir, Antioch has a solon who has his own idea about helping to keep the city dolled up. He carefully removes all the dust particles from the street in front of his home with one of those familiar street brush brooms, which he possesses. These hot days make his brow all wet as he performs his self-appointed job.

You might not believe it, but Antioch is a mighty progressive little city. This is evidenced by the fact that when this one and that one who have not looked upon the old berg for eight, nine, or ten years, return, they have to keep gazing at the signs in order not to get lost or become confused. This is a changing old world.

A. J. Felter has a new method of wooing old Morpheus. Instead of counting his sheep he counts cars on Lake street. A. J. is authority for the statement that 523 automobiles traveling east passed his residence Sunday evening between seven and nine o'clock. He didn't count the west-bound traffic. At 9:10 Mr. Felter called it a day, "and so to bed."

Is traffic really orderly and well regulated in Antioch? The statement was heard so often that an observation car was sent forth to get the facts last Saturday. Driving about the town at the legal rate of speed the observer tabulated the following figures: Going north, passed on Main street 37 times; going south, passed 22 times; passed in business block (Orchard to Lake) six times; passed on Lake street, (west) seven times, (east) five times; estimated maximum speeds observed, 45 M. P. H. Saw turning in business section, other than at street intersections, six. The answer is obvious—traffic is not orderly in Antioch.

Right on schedule, are the big dairy trucks passing through Antioch every day, that is if they have a schedule. You can almost eat your watch by them. The big trucks of Welland, Boyds and others pass north and south with remarkable regularity. Nothing like system in

No doubt of it—Jake Drom is as good an indicator as any thermometer in town. If Jake comes down town sans shirt, it's hot. If a shirt adorns Jake's manly frame, the weather is temperate, but if he wears a coat, it's below zero. Now all that remains for Jake is to invent a costume indicating a temperature reckoned to be more than hot.

Fruit for All Meals— Morning, Noon, And Night

The only mistake anyone ever seems to have made by including fruit in her diet was when Eve ate the original apple. But since that time the slogan "an apple a day keeps the doctor away" has become fixed in our national consciousness, and the consumption of some sort of fruit at every meal has become almost a national custom.

The reasons for this can be found in the following paragraphs from "Food, Nutrition and Health" by E. V. McCollum, Ph. D., Sc. D. and Nina Simmons, Sc. D. (Hygiene.) Dr. McCollum is Professor and Dr. Simmons was formerly Associate Professor of Chemical Hygiene, and Public Health, Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md. They say in their book:

"In the whole range of vegetable foods the fruits are the most attractive in appearance and flavor. No others furnish such a great variety of flavors. The fruits are among the most valuable of foods for a number of reasons. Most fruits are rich in the vitamin C, which is not widely distributed among other foods, except tomatoes and some of the succulent vegetables, and fresh, uncooked leaves.

Among Most Valuable Foods

"The citrus fruit—oranges, lemons and grapefruit—stand first in their content of vitamin C. Apples, plums, cherries, etc., contain much less of it. The tomato ripened in the field is rich in vitamin C. Those picked green and ripened by time contain substances which are disturbing to the digestive tract. It is well known that unripe apples and other unripe fruits are unsafe to eat. Ripe fruit is rich in water and relatively poor in nutrient principles. A large volume of fruit, therefore, is necessary to furnish as much energy or protein as would be furnished by a very small package of some of the more concentrated products, such as cereals, peas, beans, etc. Notwithstanding the fact that they are water-rich foods, poor in all the prominent nutrient substances—proteins, fats, carbohydrates—they are nevertheless very valuable components of the dietary, and should be regularly used. Fruits are especially useful in promoting intestinal elimination and so help to promote intestinal hygiene."

All Fruits Now Available

Of course all fresh fruits are now abundantly available in the localities where they grow, but the canning of fresh fruits picked at the very moment of their prime ripeness has proved a great boon to the health of the nation. No one need now go without fruit in the diet since these canned fruits are available everywhere at every season of the year.

The list of fruits so available includes apples (whole and sliced, apple sauce, apple butter and baked apples), apricots (whole and halves), blackberries, blueberries, cherries (whole, red and black), cranberries, cranberries, currants, figs, fruits for salad, gooseberries, grapes, grapefruit, loganberries, peaches (whole, halves, sliced and crushed), pears (whole and halves), pineapples (sliced, crushed and tidbits), plums, prunes (dry and in syrup), quinces, raisins, raspberries (black and red), rhubarb and strawberries. All of the highly colored fruits are put in the sanitary enamel lined cans which have become so popular with the housewife.

If the supply of any of these large or the price goes up, owing to some untold circumstances like the heavy frost this spring in California which cut down this year's crop of peaches, another fruit can be readily substituted. For instance, Italian prunes form a highly acceptable substitute for peaches, and their juice blends wonderfully in fruit cocktails.

Sally Ann's Adventures

at Her Grandmother's

Well, boys and girls, Sally was kind of a naughty little girl again this week. Her grandma told her so many times to be careful and not get drowned, but she doesn't listen. Sally is just like the rest of you little pees wees; she likes to puddle in the water these hot days.

Yes, she even wants her little doggie, whose name is Tippy, to be nice and cool. She gives him a bath real often and then she dresses him all up in her dolly's clothes. Now Tippy certainly does look cute, because he is all white with one black ear and four black paddles. Yesterday when she was wheeling him around in her doll buggy, she went fast over so many bumps that she tipped Tippy out and got all of his dresses so dirty that she decided she would have to wash.

Right after dinner, she began making preparations for her big washing. She had just started to pump some water into her toy wash tub when she spied a rain barrel which was standing by the side of the house. She ran over and looked and it was half full of water. Remembering that rain water is called soft water and her grandmother uses it to wash her clothes with, Sally thought that it would be all right, if she tried it on Tippy's little dresses.

Next, she ran over and got Ollie to help her. They pretended that it was Monday and of course they were in an awful hurry to get their washing on the line before grandpa got home for supper. Sally got a block of wood, set it beside the barrel, tied it to the handle of her little sand pail, and then started dipping the water from the barrel. The last time, she reached down too far and went head first down into that nasty rain water which was full of little bugs. She got a terrible bump on her head, and when grandma was fixing it up, Sally told her that that rain water wasn't so soft after all.

Did you ever try Hydrated lime for y n u r cucumber vines and other garden products that are subject to bugs and worms? You'll be surprised.

The Minister of Social Affairs of Jugoslavia is Mr. Drinkovitch. There's something funny about that name. It's just like "I could not have been heard by more people."

The best results with the least trouble and attention—that's what you'll get next winter, if you burn our Waukegan Koppers coke. This coke is now treated so that it is absolutely dustless. Let us fill up your bin NOW at our low summer prices.

In spite of the eighteenth Amendment, and all enabling legislation, the information editor was asked again recently about white rings on a walnut table.

Judge Persons of Waukegan delivered a very fine address at the Methodist church last Sunday evening on the subject of "Welfare Work." It was a wonderful discussion, and our only regret was that it could not have been heard by more people.

A recent trip to Chicago, convinces us that men are becoming more polite. They let the women go on the street car first.

No one can deny the fact that money spent on the improvement and care of a home is "money earned."

Don't forget the indoor carnival on Friday night at the Guild hall. This is given by the Ladies'

Auxiliary of the American Legion and we all know the hospitality of the ladies.

One advantage of sleeping on the floor is that you can't be kicked out of bed.

Make your present home new by the use of stained shingles. These are very easily and inexpensively applied and the result is indeed very gratifying. Let us tell you more about these wonderful shingles.

MRS. LOUISE QUIMM

"Konjola simply astounded me by the speed with which it attacked my ailments," said Mrs. Louise Quimm, 546 North Kedzie Ave., Chicago. "Other medicines and treatments had failed to help me in the least, but Konjola proved different from all the others. I had such a severe case of stomach trouble that my general health was undermined and my nerves were shattered. I was greatly worried over my poor condition. Then it was that I heard of Konjola, and put it to the test. Imagine my surprise when, before the first bottle was finished I realized that I had found the right medicine. Six bottles restored my health absolutely. I rejoice to be able to add my words of praise to this medicine, of medicines." Konjola is sold in Antioch, Illinois, at S. H. Reeves' drug store and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

SIX RETURN MATCHES WILL DRAW FANS TO PALACE FRIDAY NIGHT

C. Brown and J. Brown Are Principals in Windup Event at Palace

If an even half dozen return matches mean anything to followers of amateur boxing, to say nothing of the crackjack windup arranged between Clarence Brown, Evanston, and J. Brown, Garfield Eagles, there ought to be a record crowd at the Antioch Palace tomorrow night.

Here's the "menu" for Friday night's entertainment in the Palace arena, and it looks like one of the best cards yet arranged by Promoter Dick Mack.

Johnny Olson, Evanston, defeated last Friday by Johnny Hughes, wants another crack at the Kenosha mauler, Charlie Zahrale, Highland Park, shaded Jimmie Hiscardie, Kenosha, last Friday. They meet again tomorrow night. Joe Pitts was not satisfied with the judges' decision last Friday when they gave the verdict to Ernie Kratochvil, so Joe gets another chance to even things up this week. Joy Mullons, Deerfield, will try harder this time against Howard Craft, Grayslake, to whom he lost in their bout last Friday. With this part of the entertainment off their chests the fans will enjoy a short intermission to smoke and argue as to how it was done. Then another fight and the semi-windup and the feature bout of the evening.

Lyle Drake, hosted last week by Johnny Taylor, comes back for another try with the Waukegan boxer, and Joe Stowe, U. S. coast guard, will try to earn another decision over Rudy Peterson, whom he defeated last week.

Then the big fracas—Brown vs. Brown, that is, Clarence Brown, Evanston 141 pounder, does his stuff against one Joe Brown (no relative of Clarence's) Garfield Park.

That's the program, and it looks like a big night at the Palace Friday.

Gus DeSalgo Wins

The windup battle last Friday night resulted in a technical knock-out victory for Gus DeSalgo, Gary, Indiana, at the end of the third round over Harry Snockdill, Chicago.

Both boys were cautious during the first and second stanzas but opened up in the third. Snockdill's cauliflower ear was nailed several times by DeSalgo's left hand hooks and broke open. It bled so profusely that A. A. U. Inspector Curry stopped the fracas after the judges had called it a draw.

Chicago Monarchs to Meet Locals In First Home Game

Baseball fans expect to see real entertainment here Sunday afternoon when the Antioch team crosses bats with the Chicago Monarchs at the local ball park on West Lake street in the first home game of the season.

The Monarchs are one of Chicago's famous colored teams, members of the Mid-west league and they have the reputation of winning more ball games than any other colored team in the city. Every member of the team is rated as a star and their comic antics on the field furnish real amusement.

Manager Lou Laseo and Captain Harold Sullivan have reorganized the Antioch team, which will present practically the same lineup as last year. All the boys have been playing all season, five of them at State Line, some with the Grayslake team and others with various teams in this locality.

Stelneger and Drem will be on the firing line for Antioch, with Simpson on the receiving end.

The game will start at 2:30 standard time, and there will be an admission charge of 35 cents. If the team breaks even on this game, it is very probable that there will be many home games during the remainder of the season.

Mrs. Caroline Thomas, Waukegan, recently presented an American flag to the Daughters of the G. A. R. in memory of her uncle, Jerome Burnett, who died in 1924 at the age of 84 years. Corporal Burnett spent practically his entire life in Antioch.
